“ I never had the pleasure of meeting you but I know you were a great man. You had to be to make one of my best friends Edna Coleman a very happy woman that I know loved you very much. She always spoke the highest of you and I'm glad you brought her the happiness you did as long as you were able to. You will be missed. Hopefully we will all meet in heaven one day along with everyone else we all miss & love. Again thank you for bringing love and joy to one of my best friends life.

“ George you will be so miss at the Waffle House. we will not get to see you wouderful smile every time you can in to the door. We will meet again on the other side. You will be deeply missed. Love in Christ, Constance the Waffle House Girl. here is a poem. We're With You When you miss him, we're with you in spirit, wondering how you feel, hoping you're coping, and getting a little better each day. We understand. We care. When you're grieving, we're beside you, in our hearts, in our thoughts, we're sending you sympathy, encouragement, affection, and strength to carry on with life. He/she would want it that way.
