“ George was my wife Sandy's cousin. As youngsters, growing up, they lived next door to each other, and were more like siblings than cousins. (They were also both "only children".) Cindy was my wife's girlfriend growing up, and it was through my wife that George and Cindy met. My wife and I will both miss George very much, as a family member and good friend. Our prayers are with Cindy, Tom, Becky, and the whole family in this time of need. God bless you, George. Roger and Sandy Curtis Shelby Township, Michigan
