“ Please accept my condolences on the passing of Mr. Reese. He was my first Scoutmaster and made me a Patrol Leader- then he had no trouble telling me what a lousy job I was doing! On our many camping trips/hiking on the AT or regular Scout meetings, he was an inspiration. He taught me the importance of 'organized dicipline', something I have carried and used throughout my life. William R. Hannemann, CEO,Aqualete Industries.

“ I am sorry to hear of Georges passing, he was a wonderful man. Some of my best memories as a kid growing up in Lakewood was with him being a part of it. Whether taking all of us for rides in the back of the gas station service truck or him getting dressed up for Halloween, he was always having fun and making things fun for us. I am a better person for knowing him, I hope all of his family finds some comfort in these comments and wishing you peace. Your friend and neighbor John Vermeal
