“ Mrs. Rodgers, Blair, Darryl, and Dallas, I just ran across Mr. Rodgers obituary, and I offer my heartfelt condolences. I think about all of you from time to time, and I even tell my kids about the days when we were neighbors in Chesapeake. Remember when Guy got onto that teenager who was speeding down the street? He pulled his car in front of what I remember as a Gremlin, and my dad, Jimmy, pulled behind the Gremlin. That kid was trapped! He gave him a talking to as I recall. Anyway, I lost my mother, Pat, a few months prior to Guy's passing. May fond memories see you through difficult times. Mrs. Rodgers, your boys turned out quite handsome, and I know they make you and Mr. Rodgers proud. Take care and God bless.

“ I first met Mr. Rodgers years ago when his son Dallas was on one of my baseball teams. He introduced himself to me as "Guy" and we had something in common. My son Mike and I were remembering him and only the best thoughts came out, "good people and very polite" to everyone. Condolence to the family, what a great Husband and Father you were blessed with!

“ Guy was my best friend. I first met Guy at Virginia Beach Community Chapel over 50 years ago. We directed traffic in and out of the parking lot. That experience began a lifelong journey of friendship. We shared many memories together. Our memories included Daytona 500 Nascar races and hunting in Farmville, VA. I have been blessed that Guy was my friend. To Nettie Ann and the boys, I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Sorry for your loss. Prayers to the Rodgers family. I remember his smiley face and friendly personality when he used to come into Forestry. I sure loved to come in and visit Darryl. Hold on to those memories. May he rest in peace.
