“ I always miss you this time of year. When I met you, I knew you were so very special. You always looked out for me and I know you still do. I am so grateful for being a part of your life for the short time that I got. I lost a piece of me when God took you home. I long to hug you one more time. I hope your family is well. My sincerest condolences. You will be forever missed.

“ Where do I begin? We met in a not so good situation, but I believe we both turned that situation into something great. I wish we could have gotten the chance to make things even better, what hurts the most though is not knowing what could have been. You were loved by many and your going to be missed by many. I'll always remember all those talks and crazy things you said <3 You have a place in my heart until I see you again someday RIP George "I'll see you again someday"

“ Your Emily misses you so much. I have been your mother in law for almost 10 years and will be forever,I am Emily's grandmother and Amanda's mom. your daughter sleeps with me most nights and every night she dreams about you in her sleep. There is not a day she hasnt thought about you now and before. On her bed room wall she painted a hugh picture of you and a picture of herself (that looks just like you because she said I look just like my Daddy) . my biggest sadness other than you being gone is the day you came over to see Emily and she was at the doctors 3 days later we lost the chanch to see you in person again. Emily carries a picture of you and Amanda in a locket neckles.she will for ever carry you in her heart as so do I. We miss you more than word will ever say. Your Emily loves you with all her heart. Emily asked me to tell you she misses you Daddy and she knows you are with her every day.

“ It is with great sadness that we express our condolences at George's death. How can we find words to explain something so senseless? Just know that our thoughts and prayers are with each member of the family. Take care.
