“ Dear Salzgeber Family, My name is Winter. I am a resident of Sumter county and also a volunteer their. My condolences to you all. To loose a mother like Ms. Gertrude is painful. I have experienced pain of loosing a loved one and that is why I had to write you all. What I learned about grief is that different things work for diffrent people. Crying may help one, but another it may be talking or writing. Also ,as I have found it could be reading certain verses in the bible that show exactly what God can do for us and our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15, John 5:28-29,1 Corinthians 15:26, Revelation 21:4 helped greatly. Read them I am sure they will help you too. My condolences. Sincerely, Winter G.
