

Ginger Allison Butler

December 19, 1961 - March 14, 2024

On March 14, 2024, Ginger Allison Butler passed away peacefully at the age of 62. She was born December 19, 1961 in Bellefontaine, Ohio, and moved to Florida in her late teens. She married her first husband, John Treadway, and raised two children with him until they separated ways, remaining friends. A while later she met Scott Butler and it was a match made in heaven. Together they conquered so much and grew closer every step. Ginger was a hairdresser, worked with the family company, a stay-at-home mother, an advertising agent and so much more in her career days. But throughout her whole life she loved helping others. She thrived at her church and was involved with numerous ministries focused on the care and salvation of others.

Ginger always wanted better for anyone who was struggling and she did what she could to ensure she was a part of their solution. Ginger cared deeply for her family, neighbors, and friends. She did this not out of obligation, but because of who she was. She was always the first to offer help even if that meant a sacrifice to her own comfort or health. She was surrounded with the love of her friends and family from all over as she passed and had her daughter by her side.

Ginger is survived by her husband, Scott Butler, her daughter, Allison (John) Liston, her daughter-in-law, Meghan Treadway, her step-children, Stephanie Unsworth, Laura (Kevin) Bass, Josh (Carrie) Butler, Joseph (Mariana) Butler, and Kelly (Nathan) Kines, her brother, Greg (Kathleen) Dattilo, her brother, Tony Dattilo, her grandchildren Timothy and Benjamin, her step-grandchildren Joseph, Hannah (Luxy), Garron, Leah, Aiden, Conner, Jackson and Cylus. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. She was predeceased by, her father and mother Ronald and Marilyn Dattilo, her step-granddaughter, Rebecca Daily, and her son, Dustin Treadway.

“ I was Ginger's teacher many years ago when she was a 4th grader at Northeastern Elementary in Bellefontaine. Through Facebook we reconnected and I'm so glad we did. Her posts were always joyful even in the times of greatest sorrow. I'd sure she will be greatly missed by her family. She left a joyful mark of the earth.

“Ginger was among one of the first friends I made when I moved to Leesburg in the Mid-80s. She and John made me feel right at home. When I returned in the early 90s, I was one of her pastors at Morrison UMC. She was always a source of fun, energy, and laughter. Her daughter Allison married my cousin John Liston, and we became family. Everyone will feel the absence of her warmth and kind spirit. Now, she no longer feels pain and reunites with her son, Dustin. Her light still shines in this world. Go forward into eternity to be a blessing in whatever comes next.

“ 🌹 Ginger was a dear friend and I will miss her. She was a sweet, gentle soul. For the years I knew her she endured many hardships. Her personal health issues; the death of her son and soon after her granddaughter. A year later the death of her mother followed by her best friend, her husband was diagnosed with Cancer. Through it all she leaned on her faith in God. RIP angel. I will always cherish our friendship.
