“ Mom,
Myself and my family have such a long list of such cherished memories of you and your family. You always treated us so genuine and kind. Ive always valued the friendship you and my mother shared for many years. She always knew she could reach out to you for anything. Some of greatest childhood memories where made at your home. You always made the best sandwiches! They must have been made with extra love . You carried yourself with such Grace and poise at all times. You taught us girls to act like a lady even when we werent behaving very lady like ! Never to leave the house without lipstick and earrings! I will miss you dearly and I will forever cherish my last visit with you hearing you sing Amazing Grace and telling me you loved me and that I was beautiful, even though your eyes werent up to par. Go rest high Mom and know what a legacy you left behind.
