“ Dear Bob. I am so sorry to hear this news and I send all my sympathy. From one who has been there, I know how you feel. If you ever want to "unload" and just talk, feel free to call...I'll listen and give no platitudes...after my Mom died, I kept wanting to talk to remember her and I was lucky to have such patient friends. “ Bob, Loving a life-long Love is excruciating, even when you know it is coming. I know you realize only the physical is lost to you and she will still be there for major events in the grandchildren's lives. Remember to breathe, I know it is hard at this point. She is Free again, healthy, and happy. She will watch over you and you can call and talk with her at anytime. My prayers are with you at this most difficult time.

“ Bob, I will be praying for you and your family at this time of loss. I never met your wife but am sure she was a good and caring person because I have experienced that in you; and behind every good man is a good woman who has helped him be so. May God bless you and yours at this time. Mark Zbojnowicz "Sponge"
