“ Gloria was a very kind and considerate person. I had known her since elementary school as we rode the same school bus. She touched many lives in a special and caring way. Gloria will be deeply missed.

“ Gloria was a schoolmate, a good friend, and wife of my best friend. She was always fun to be around and always had an interesting point of view. She once told me that if something I had was not selling, then I didn't have it priced high enough. For a while, Gloria and I had the same primary doctor and Gloria shared about a "Come to Jesus" appointment -- very candidly, but Gloria could be serious and humorist at the same time. It was her way. She spoke often like that when commenting about Dan being set in his ways. You did not have to be around her long to understand that she truly loved Dan. They were soulmates like you seldom see and so lucky to have had each other.
