“ My brother enlisted in the Navy, August 28, 1972. He was never in Vietnam and I'm glad they updated his obituary. He was in Philippines, Guam, Japan, and Hawaii he was also was on the mainland In San Francisco and San Diego. These are some of the places he actually went during his military service. He retired from the Navy in Hawaii in 1993 and remained there for another 10 years.

“ I knew Greg at an early age! I have so many memories of hanging out with him. He used to drive me and my friend Jeri to school! He was very good friends with my older brother. We were pen pals when he was in the Navy. We visited him often near San Diego while he was serving! Awesome friend, and he will be forever in my heart! Fly high Greg!!! I miss you!
