

Gregory Alan Rollman

March 27, 1966 - January 26, 2022

Gregory Alan Rollman, a longtime resident of St. Paul, Minnesota, passed away on January 26, 2022 at the young age of 55. Diagnosed with mesothelioma just four months prior, Greg made it down to Florida to be with his family who cared for him at home the last two weeks of his life.

Greg was a free spirit and a true hippie at heart. He loved outdoor concerts and was an avid Dead Head. Always an outstanding athlete, Greg played soccer, hockey, football and wrestled growing up. He loved hockey and the Minnesota Wild. His love of the ocean sprouted from living in Puerto Rico and Hawaii in his early youth. Greg worked for SPS Companies in the Twin Cities area, where he was a dedicated and loyal employee for 27 years. He was loved by his co-workers.

Greg is survived by his mother and father, Elizabeth and Robert Rollman, of Leesburg, FL; his brother, Troy Rollman, of Rincon, Puerto Rico; his sister, Cathy Pizzo, and her two sons, Nick Pizzo and Justin Pizzo, all of Bradenton, FL; and his brother, Tom Rollman, and Tom's son, William Rollman, both of Honolulu, HI. Greg is preceded in death by his sister, Carol Rollman, of Honolulu, HI.

A private celebration of his life will be held in the future.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society in lieu of flowers.

Arrangements entrusted to Beyers Funeral Home Crematory, Leesburg, FL
