“ Guy, you have no idea how much I wish I wasn't writing this right now. I'll Always remember how much you loved race cars, going to the the drag strip and just racing in general. The advice you would give me for my son Chi Chi who races motocross about his starts being most important. I'll never forget our talk about my son Kyle who was killed in Summerville, S.C. by some bad guys. You hurt for me and told me the arms of the law are long, and they'll eventually get what's coming. You said for me not to worry, that I would see him again. I'll Always be grateful for your kinds loving words. But most of all Guy, I will Always remember how much you loved Jackie and taking rides with her on your Harley. You both were one. I still laugh when I think of your response after I told you I wouldn't go with you guys because my wife couldn't go. With that deep laugh, you said "that's fine, your a smart boy, don't blame you". I'll miss you my friend and will never forget that deep voice of yours. I'll leave you with this, "The two most important things a man can accomplish during their time here on earth is to take care of their family and to make a difference". You did both my friend, and please don't worry, we'll all look out for Jackie. Guy, like you said to me when I lost my son, we'll see each other again. Much Love !
