Obituary of H. Fawcett

H. Wayne Fawcett, son of the late Wheeler and Ruth Fawcett of Macomb, IL, predeceased by wife, Mildred E. Fawcett, survived by children, Cheryl Fawcett Nebbia, Kathy Fawcett Heilig, Michael W. Fawcett, James P. Fawcett, eight grandchildren, wife Jane Fawcett, and seven of nine siblings, died peacefully, surrounded by his loving family on June 7, 2011. Wayne proudly served the U.S. Navy, completing his distinguished 20 year Naval Aviation career as Command Master Chief. His second career began with Philco, leading to many years in Human Resources with Ford Motor Company. An ordained Baptist minister, he devotedly served congregations in Tennessee, Florida and Virginia. An avid bluegrass enthusiast, Wayne spent his retirement years learning to play and repair multiple stringed instruments, traveling with Millie to bluegrass festivals across the country, and sharing his love of music, along with countless life lessons, with his beloved family and friends. A masterful fix-it man and craftsman, Wayne will be remembered most for his undying devotion to family, faith, friends and country. After lovingly caring for Millie through her lengthy illness, he found joy in his final 16 months with his beloved Jane.

“ My husband, Bob, and I had the privilege of playing with Wayne at several jams. Not only was he a great musician but he was a warm, loving man who spoke a great deal about his family. Our condolences to you. May you find peace in the memories he left behind, and knowing that he is in a better place.

“ To the Fawcett Family: We are so very sorry to hear of Wayne's passing and are so sorry that we cannot be there with you in this sad time. We will always remember him and Millie for their dear friendship. Bob will always remember their good times when they played music together as well as the help whenever we had a problem with the motorhome. Also, Millie when she would make peanut butter cookies for him. We can't tell you how very sorry we are,

“ Jane & Family, I'm so sorry to hear of Wayne's passing. I know he was a great man and well loved. May you be at peace knowing he's with our heavenly Lord now and always keep those "fun-loving" precious memories you have of him close to your heart. You are all in my prayers in this time of sorrow. “ Uncle Wayne you were the kindest man I've ever known. I miss you dearly. I will forever remember your advice over the 530am coffee dates we had back in Oct of 2009..your words inspire me to this day. You were a treasure you hold a special place in my heart..rest in peace with your beloved Millie.. Love Beth
