“ Harold Sylvester Brooks, Sr., also known as a Billy Dee Williams look alike (to my mother), but I thought that he resembled Bruce Lee, was the dearest father of my son, Harold, Jr. and my favorite fashion model. He could wear some clothes, especially the ones that I designed for him! He was kind enough to wear whatever I created and he supported my passion for fashion. Thank you and I will never forget you. Rest in peace and may GOD strengthen and bless your family. Faith Brooks Evans
