

Harry J. DiMauro

February 12, 1929 - September 13, 2015

Obituary of Harry DiMauro, Sr.

On Sunday, September 13, 2015 Harry Joseph DiMauro Sr. passed away with his beloved wife Connie by his side. He was born at home on February 12, 1929 to his mother Anna (Amenta) DiMauro and father Nicolo DiMauro in Cromwell, CT. He grew up in that home with his five brothers and six sisters; very nearby to his aunts, uncles, and dozens of cousins. He was raised to value family above all things and he enjoyed nothing more than being surrounded by the people he loved. The love and care he gave was deeply felt by all. Along with his wife Connie (Salonia), he is survived by his six loving children, Dean, Martin, Christine, Doreen, Kelly, and Harry Jr., his dear daughters-in-law, Anne, Darlene, Sandy, Carol, and Patty, his son-in-law John, his thirteen grandchildren (and their partners) his 20 great-grandchildren, his sisters Anna (DiMauro) Lastrina, and Barbara Jean DiMauro, his sister-in-law Sheila DiMauro and many nieces and nephews.

On Friday, September 18, 2015, his family will gather together for a mass at Saint Timothy's Church in Lady Lake, Florida, followed by commitment services at Florida National Cemetery. We will celebrate his life, share the memories he built for us, talk of the joy, love and laughter he brought to us, comfort one another and we will let him go until we meet again.

In lieu of flowers, the family recommends memorial donations be made to The Society of St. Vincent de Paul or The Veterans Administration.

Tribute Wall

“ Connie & family: I was saddened to learn of your recent loss. Please know that I shall keep you all in my prayers. Rho said you were surrounded by your family. Hope you are doing well. Hope to see you again real soon at bingo. All my thoughts are with you and your loved ones.

---

Linda Grzanich - September 19, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ Harry J. DiMauro

---

September 18, 2015 at 12:00 AM