

Harry William Hauber

January 29, 2015

Obituary of Harry Hauber, Jr.

HAUBER, HARRY WILLIAM, JR., 85, of The Villages, FL, passed away January 29, 2015. Preceded in death by daughter, Deborah A Sublett. Survived by his wife of 60 years, Betty Fisher Hauber and children, Harry W. (Billy) Hauber, III (Linda), Rebecca Hauber Alter (Jeff), Cheri L. Hauber (Beth), John F. Hauber (Eileen), 8 grandchildren, 9 great-grandchildren. Graduated Flaget High School; attended Univ. of Louisville. U.S. Army Veteran. Retired from Tafel Electric, Westinghouse Corp. Long time member of St. Raphael, Louisville, KY and St. Mark, The Villages, FL. Service @ St. Mark, Feb. 2, 10:00 AM; Mass in Louisville, KY at later date.

Tribute Wall

BA

“ Dear Daddy, I miss you so so much. I love you more than you will ever know and I am so proud that you are my Daddy. Love you!!!
Your daughter, Becky

Becky Hauber Alter - February 15, 2015 at 12:00 AM

RM

“ Thinking of you often in this trying time. May all your best memories carry you through.

Robin Meshew - February 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM

BW

“ Dear Betty Sorry to read about Harry. He was a great guy and always fun to be around while we worked at Tafel. Seems you have a large support family to help you thru your loss. Best to you. Bob Welsh

Bob Welsh - February 04, 2015 at 12:00 AM

DS

“ Dear Betty and Family I am so sorry for your loss. Harry was a wonderful man. I spent many wonderful days with Harry at Tafel Electric & Supply Co. He was a great man to work for. As the years went by Harry became a close friend and mentor to me. He touched my life in a way that most people would never understand. I will miss him forever. God bless the Hauber family Doug Smith

Doug Smith - February 04, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ Harry William Hauber

October 09, 2014 at 12:00 AM