“ Hello everyone, We are so sorry for your loss. Granny and Papa were special people. They didn't just talk the talk, they walked the walk. Even though legally I am no longer part of the family, noone has ever made me feel more loved or welcome. I have searched a lifetime for what they had together. They showed me what a marriage was suppose to be and ya'll showed me how family was suppose to be. Ya'll showed me how good Christian people were to live their lives. You set the example. I love you so much for that. I wish I could have been there but Mama's health isn't the best right now and I couldn't leave her. Now everyone is together again. What a wonderful day it was when Granny walked through those Pearly Gates. Papa was the first person she saw I am sure. I can hear him say come on in Shug I've been waiting for ya. God Bless you all.
Love, Scarlett

“ Russell, Elaine, Diane and all of Mrs. Hazel's family; So sorry to hear of the home going/graduation of the one so loved by each of you and respected by so many. I like to think that she is so happy now with Mr. Wilmer, Joe, Laverne, and many other friends who are now in HEAVEN. I also look forward to seeing my loved ones along with yours and see Jesus who prepared that indescribable place for us. Want you to know that you are all in our prayers and that our Heavenly Father will wrap His loving arms around you now and the days to come and grant you peace. We love you.

“ I did not know her, but the legacy of her stellar job as a mother is evident in the example of her son Russell. So sorry for her absence now in all your lives. She raised you well, and you know exactly what to do from here on out. If you ever have a moment's hesitation, just turn to one of those beautiful hymns you sing so well. Thanks always, both of you, Russell and Janet, for your kindness during the loss of my mother. Thinking of you now as you face the same loss. Jesus paid the price and broke the bonds of the grave.

“ To any and all family members who may read this I just want to say I love you all so very much and have so many beautiful memories because Granny and Papa made family a priority. I pray we stay close to each other in their absence, as we all know they would want. We share a goodly heritage and have been greatly blessed through the lives and prayers of Granny and Papa. I pray a double portion of their goodness and grace falls onto each one of us! May we always remember their testimony and faithfulness to the Lord. I love you all and am so thankful that we KNOW we will all be together again!!!

“ Praying that God will send you comfort and strength in your time of loss. Our sincere sympathy goes to all the family. Losing a loved one is never easy, but we draw strength from knowing that Jesus promised that He has prepared a place for us and that we can trust His promise. May the kindness and love of family and friends surround you in the days to come.
