She leaves behind her husband of 18 years, Troy Kubusheski; eldest son Troy (wife Shelby); daughter, Ashlyn; youngest son, Casey; granddaughter, Olivia; mother, Cindy Speer; sister, Jennifer Rogers; nieces, in-laws and many friends.

Heather was born on November 18, 1974 to Cindy Speer and John Rogers in Vero beach, Florida. After graduating high school, she went on to college to get her Associate's degree. She then went on to meet her husband Troy Kubusheski and helped him raise his son Troy (TJ) as her own. Together they had two more children, Ashlyn and Casey.

Heather was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She loved spending her time in the kitchen with her daughter Ashlyn creating delicious meals for the family. Most weekends she welcomed the neighborhood children over with open arms. One of her proudest moments recently was when she became a grandmother this past October to little Olivia who was born to her eldest son Troy and his wife Shelby. She was a beloved grandmother and loved spending time with her granddaughter. Her perfect day consisted of relaxing on the couch with a good book in her hand while her dog Zeus laid beside her.

“ I am very glad to have had her as my real estate assistant for 16 years here in the Villages. I could go on vacation and be assured she would get the jobs done. Heather, rest in peace! No more pain.
