“ I lost my second Mom on Thursday. She's with Jesus now. No more breathing problems or worries about falling when walking. We miss you Mom, but we will meet again.

“ Praying for the Holy Spirit to comfort you all during this time of loss. Find peace in knowing that this is not the last time you will be together- for in time all things will be made new, no more suffering and sorrow. Peace and blessings to you Karen and all of your family.

“ Thinking of you all and the grief you are feeling right now. There are no words that we can say or write that will ease that but please know that we are thinking of you all and praying that the Lord's love will just surround you and those wonderful memories you have of her will comfort you. We know that Blair is rejoicing right now to be with her again and may we all be comforted to know that we will see her again. I (Caren) have so many beautiful memories of those days when I was fortunate to have helped in caring for 3 precious children when their parents had their "night out" and am so blessed to have continued the friendship to this day.

“ My sympathies to you, Curtis, and the entire family. I can still hear Helen's wonderful, fun laugh and feel her warm welcome when Blair would take me to your home on Patton in A.H. I pray your memories, knowing that others care about your heartbreak, and the love of our Lord will sustain you in the days ahead.
