“ remembering when we were all young and growing up together in Texas. You got some Florida sand in your shoes and fell in love with a local fellow and stayed like I did, those many years ago. To me , you were easy to talk to and we never had a fuss or misunderstanding since child hood. You were strong, but had a gentle voice. We had some fun, crazy times together and use to laugh so much. You left this world too young and too sudden. I know you were loved and will be missed. Till we all meet again, in Heaven. love, Margaret
