“ Dear Auntie and family, I am deeply saddened about the passing of dear Uncle Henry. He always had a smile on his face and such deep love for his family. May he rest in peace with the other angels up there welcomed by his parents, son, sisters, brother and family and friends. He earned his wings and now he is watching over us. Rest in peace and may God give your family the strength and courage to move forward. Love, Darlene Larue your niece.
