“ Bud was a great family man; king of his castle. I loved going over to the house to hang out with my friend Jackie, but her house was different than most in that whenever I went over I got to hang out with the whole family. Nowadays, that's not very common to see a family who not only wants to spend more time together but actually does. I really appreciated all the great man talks we had about getting older, family, responsibility, life and love. Bud, you are missed.

“ This is so so hard to accept. BUD, you were larger than life and loved by everyone. Rest in the peace that you ever so deserve. All of us here will carry on until we see you again. I know you'll be there to greet us when it's our time. Go hang out with all the loved ones that left before you. WATCH over Diane, Jackie & Paul and ease them through these hard times. We will love you always Bud. Until we meet again.
