Herbert W. Flosdorf, 73, of Lititz, PA, passed away Thursday, February 29, 2024.

Born October 28, 1950 in Lansdale, PA, he was the loving husband of 50 years to Barbara A.

(Bigelow) and son of late Herbert and Jean Flosdorf.

Herb grew up in Hatfield, PA and graduated from North Penn High School. He went on to earn a B.S. in Civil and Environmental Engineering from the University of Delaware, which is where he met his beloved wife, Barb.

Herb enjoyed a very successful career in both private and public endeavors and took great pride in transforming The Lancaster County Waste Management Authority into a national model focused on sustainability and renewable energy. “ I always loved Mr. Flosdorf's sense of humor, and I will continue to recycle many of his jokes. I have a ton of memories from growing up, but the trips to Lake Walenpaupak were legendary, and I will never forget my time spent with Herb and his family. He was truly one of a kind. He will certainly be missed, but never forgotten!
