“Herb was my 2nd father growing up in Christmas always treated me like his daughter and always have the best advice even on my wedding day when he drove me to the church just men and him should have taken his advice that day but would not have had my 2 children with their father. He and Gail took care of me and Jonathan after I gave birth they took us home with them and I did not go home my house for at least 4 months and then he would come by every Friday and pick Jon-Jon up and take him to Christmas to spend the weekend with him and Gail also know as Nana and Pop could never repay them for all they did for me and my family. I've miss them so much for so many years love you Gail and Herb and always will. You both were angels here on earth and that I know for sure. I will be with you both one day again. Love you both always and forever
