“ Kathy, We were so sorry to read this mornings paper about your Dad. We feel very blessed to have met him. He was very interesting. We have shared the DVD with family and friends and told them the story of how we met him. You and your family will be in our prayers. God Bless, Tom & Jo

“ I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one and I hope the following suggestions help the family members and those who loved Hermann Joseph Blumhardt to lessen their grief. • Talk about your feelings to "a true companion" who will listen patiently and sympathetically. • If you have feelings of guilt thinking that some neglect on your part contributed to your loved one's death, realize, though, that no matter how much we love another person, we cannot prevent "time and unforeseen occurrence from befalling those we love. (Ecclesiastes 9:11) More than anything else, a relationship with God can help you to cope with the death of someone you love. Isaiah 33:24 promises the time when an end to sickness will become a reality. God will put an end to pain, suffering and even DEATH. God promises at Isaiah 25:8 that death will be swallowed up forever.

“ When Hermann's granddaughter started dating our son, we gained a whole new layer to our family. Hermann and Katie blessed us with their joyful spirit and love. I will never forget "Opa" leading all the guests at my birthday party in a rousing version of "In Heaven there is no beer". Christmas won't be the same without Christmas carols and Opa playing his squeezebox. Until we meet again, Hermann. May the angels of kindness comfort Katie, Kathy. Anita, John, Tanja, Jeff, Michael and Ralna.

“ On behalf of the Veterans of the Battle of the Bulge, we extend our sincere condolences to Katie and Hermann's family. Hermann will be sorely missed by the many VBOB friends he made when he and Katie entertained us with their music. We considered him a true comrade and respect his military service. He was indeed a friend to all of us.
