

Holley Lynne Day

February 21, 1967 - August 13, 2024

Holley Lynne Day, 57, went home to be with the Lord on August 13, 2024. Holley was born in Rochester, NY to Maynard Day Jr. and LeArda (Morgenthaler) Day on February 21, 1967. In 1974, the family moved to Florida. It was there that Holley graduated high school. For a while, Holley worked at the same company as her mother.

Holley inherited a love for baseball from her father. For over 40 years, Holley, her dad, and mom have visited every Major League Baseball Stadium and every Spring training camp in the United States. Mom's claim to fame is "singing 'Take Me Out to The Ball Game'." in every stadium. Holley also enjoyed bowling and golfing. Her favorite thing to do besides autograph collecting, was to be with her church family. Holley was known for her hugs and back massages. She had a way of making everyone feel special. Her outgoing spirit and personality were one of a kind. These are just a few things that made friendship with her such a gift.

Holley is survived by her mother LeArda Day, her Aunts Tammy Frost and Debbie Poor, and several cousins.

She is preceded in death by her father, Maynard L. Day Jr.

A Celebration of Life Service will be held Tuesday, August 27, 2024, 10:30 a.m. at Fairway Christian Church. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in memory of Holley may be given to Fairway Christian Church or TLC-Transitions Life Center, PO Box 236, Ocala, Florida 34478.

“ My heart hurts with the loss of Holly. My Sunday Church services will not be the same without the love hug and back massage from my friend Holly. My happiest thoughts are she is with her Dad. Pat Hudy

Holly, I loved golfing with you and seeing you smile when you would outdrive every player and help us win our 50 cents for being the best team of the day. I will miss your loving hugs and the joy that you seem to bring everyone. 💖 Sending love and hugs to heaven knowing that our Lord has seen your beauty and filled you with many blessings.

with blessings.

Holley never missed a Sunday showing her love for her church family. A great loss and void will be felt. She is now with our precious Jesus.

I did not know Holley on a personal basis. But I watched each Sunday as she collected the communion cups. I also saw how many related to her and my thoughts were she must be a wonderful girl. She will be missed 😭

The memory of Holley sharing her love of family will remain for as long as Fairway Christian Church exists. I have the feeling that your spirit will continue to roam the aisles of FCC. Rest in Peace Holley Lynne Day.

I knew you are with our Lord but I will be so thankful for all the gifts and love you showed to Dani and I will miss the white reserve towel on our pew you always put there for us.

But most of we will miss you coming up to the choir loft and give me a hug and making sure Dani was ok. You always asked (how's Dani) I always thought of you as a butterfly going all over the church on Sunday morning giving hugs it was hard sitting in the choir trying to keep track of you ;). We will miss you dear Holley Love. The Friday's
