“ To all of Holly's family - It is sad to hear of Holly's recent passing. I have fond memories of my childhood which included my first cousins Holly and her siblings. These memories revolve primarily around the holidays when we naturally all gathered in warmth together. At my current age of 70 I can still recall them so clearly. Holly added so much spark to those events and to my life in general. In Peace - Stew

“ Dear Fred: Jim and I were saddened by the sudden passing of Holly. She was always so pleasant to be around and you and she had matching personalities. Far too young. I hope you and Holly's daughters find peace and comfort in the weeks and months ahead.
