Obituary of Irene McCarthy

Irene Aurora McCarthy passed on October 22nd, 2012, and was comforted in her final days by her five children, who came as far away as Virginia, California, and Hawaii to be with her. The daughter of Italian immigrants, she was born in Logan, West Virginia, to Annita (Mataloni) and Melezio Silvestrucci.

Irene is survived by her sister, Rena (Silvestrucci) Fleischman of Brackenridge, PA.; and by her children, Anita McCarthy Knouse of Hidden Valley Lake, CA; Ray McCarthy of Santa Cruz, CA; Michael McCarthy of Waikoloa, HI; Kenneth McCarthy of Ashburn, VA; Gera Ann Gleason of Jacksonville, FL; and her only grandchild, Duncan McCarthy of Waikoloa, HI. She was preceded in death by her husband, Raymond Joseph McCarthy.

Every holiday, relatives waited for Irene's wonderful cookies, pies, and candies -- the Italian specialties of biscotti and crostate were particularly coveted. She also had a fine sense of style, reflected in the way she dressed and decorated her home.

Irene's favorite refuge was on an ocean beach. She chose Hawaii as her final resting place. A private funeral Mass will be held at a later date.
