

Irwin (Doc) Mann

November 13, 1940 - June 19, 2025

Dr. Irwin (Doc) Mann passed away of pancreatic cancer at 84 years of age on June 19, 2025. He was a loved father, grandfather, brother, and dear friend.

Doc was born in Chicago, Illinois on November 13, 1940. One of the highlights of his childhood was playing in the Little League World Series. He went on to graduate from the Illinois College of Podiatry in 1964. As a board certified podiatrist and surgeon, he owned private practices. was on staff at Kern Hospital, and taught podiatric medicine and surgery in both Iowa and Michigan. Doc co-invented and held the patent for the Polly Cast Boot.

After moving to Michigan, Irwin enjoyed spending time with his family at their home on Lake Voorheis where both boating and fishing were favorite pastimes.

He loved making music and singing with members of The Big Chief Barbershop

Chorus in Michigan and The Heart of Florida Barbershop Chorus in Florida. During his retirement years in Florida, spending time with dear friends and family, singing, and playing cards were part of the meaningful memories he made.

In lieu of a memorial service, Doc simply wanted to share a thank you to each and everyone of you who touched his life. He deeply appreciated your friendship!

“ Hey Irwin. I'm so glad we reconnected about 20 yrs ago. Hours on the phone, even recently. And getting to meet and know your family has been part of life's pleasures even though it's only been these last few years. And I still have your 1st baseman's glove, somewhere. All of us will miss you greatly.
