“ I only knew Isaiah for the last few months of his life. In that short time I came to know what a wonderful young man he was. He worked hard, loved his family and friends. I never heard him say a bad word about anyone. He was quiet and kind. A gentle giant. We talked some about our lives, and during one of our conversations he said that when he was a little younger that he had accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior and was baptized. I'm so glad we had that conversation, because I know he is safe in the arms of Jesus and we will meet again. Our Deepest Sympathy to his Dad and family.
