“ Phyllis, I cannot express how shocked I was to learn that Ivan and my Bob passed away on the same day. What a hero Ivan was and Bob loved to listen to his war experiences. We treasured you and Ivan as dear friends. They are now in Heaven sitting on the right hand of God and free of all their suffering. I will keep you in my prayers that God will comfort and take care of you. Love, Elsie Grant

“ Grandpa. I do not think you will ever know how much you meant to me. I can remember "bragging" about you as far back as elementary school to all my friends. You accomplished and achieved so much in your life and I always admired that. I am thankful that you were able to get to know Melissa and our children, your great-grandchildren. I have so many wonderful memories of you and I will hold on to those forever. You will be missed greatly. I love you. Your Grandson, Mike

“ Grandpa, As I sit here writing this it still feels so surreal that this has happend. You have always been an ringing example in my life. Your strong military career that showed how to have pride for your country was and still is an inspiration of what a true American hero looks like. I will never forget childhood visits to your Charleston home, sharing your stories, outlooks on life, and amusing quips that would without fail bring about your unforgettable laugh. You were always so supportive, loving and concerned about me especially when I went through all my eye issues. I have been talking and sharing more than ever lately with my 4 kids your legacy. I am so proud to be born a De Baecke and more importantly your granddaughter. Rest in peace Grandpa. I know you've reunited with Grandma and Aunt Sue now and we have one more angel to watch over us. Added condolences to All the De Baecke's and to everyone who loved you in life and celebrate you in death. God Bless Kelly (DeBaecke) Hewitt

“Dad, you are my life time hero. I will forever miss you and joy we shared as a family. You were a true professional at everything you did and a shining example for your kids to be all they can be. You were always there for me and helped me understand right from wrong, good from bad. I will forever be proud of you and all that you stood for. Your love of country, family and God has helped mold me into the man I am today and I am grateful to have had you as my dad, father, friend and mentor. As God welcomes you into His Kingdom may His peace be always with you. You are with mom now and will forever be as He has promised. I love you dad, then, now and forever. God Bless You Always! Love, your son Chuck
