“Jac and I met in September of 1964 while serving in the U.S. Air Force. We were roommates in the Air Force Russian language program at Syracuse University. After language school but before reporting to Goodfellow Air Force base for "voice intercept" training, I was married to Andrea Ross in 1965. Jac was my best man. He later married Andrea's sister Liz. Jac was posted to England. After being cross-trained in code and cipher analysis I was sent to Crete, Greece. Andrea and I visited Jac and Liz in England in 1967 by hitching rides on Air Force aircraft. That was the last time I saw Jac. I lost touch with him until I discovered his profile on Facebook. That was about a month before he passed.

“Jac, sorry that you had to leave so soon,, but now I don't have to fight or compete with anybody for the bag of Reese's peanut butter cups. I know you're up there with Judy and Larry. just to let you know your golf cart and Reese's peanut butter cups are in good hands. Love, Joe (the plumber)

“ Dad, you will be missed so very much. You've been in my life since I was born, it seems like. I'm so very lucky to have so many cherished moments with you since I was a little girl, young woman, and even now that I am "grown-up". Even though you are in heaven with Judy, I know that you will always be with me whispering in my ear to use my "noodle". I love you very much and miss you very much. But I am glad that you are happy and healthy in heaven. 🥹

Love, your daughter-Lorie
