“ Dear Eva Cline and the family of Dr. Jack Cline, kindly accept my absolute condolences on the passing of your loved one. I watched the Oprah show few days ago and got so touched by Dr Jack Cline's experience and the impact the book "seat of the soul " by Gary Zakuv had on his life moved me. It moved me so much I searched on the internet for his name and realized he passed on and I am so devastated by his passing at the same time I am consoled because I know he is in a better place. I will always remember you Eva Cline and his family in my prayers. Thank you and stay blessed.

“ I've never looked forward to going to the dentist until I became a patient of Dr.Cline's. He had such a comforting, friendly way about him...and I'm not talking about the dental work. I'm talking about as a human. Every once in a while you meet a genuinely kind & caring person. A 100% non-judgmental, non-threatening entity. A refreshing soul. He was one of those. I've had my difficulties in life, & I doubt he ever realized how he helped me forget about them & feel better. He always seemed to put me at ease somehow, and I'm deeply saddened by his passing. I'll never forget my first appointment when he said he had to go watch the youtube instructional video before he could start the work! I knew then he was different. My deepest condolences to his wife & family. I hope you are comforted by these words. Goodbye, Jack.

“ I'm so sorry to hear the passing of Jack. You both are a dynamic couple, well respected and happy. The first time meeting you and Jack at MVP years ago was a pleasure and seeing you both so positive. Then at the Ocala Porsche Dealer with his 911 on the 70th Porsche Anniversary a beautiful car and beautiful couple. Jack liked his fast cars and he knew a lot about cars with his parents owning a dealership. My deepest sympathy. God Bless You and your families.
