“ I am so sorry for your loss. I pray that God would give the family peace and strength as you go through this terrible loss. I love all of you as though I was still part of your family. My memories of you in years past have never faded. Jack always treated me as though I was his daughter instead of a daughter-in-law. You always made me feel loved. He will be terribly missed by a lot of people. If I can do anything to make this a little easier for you, please let me know. With all my love always, Cindy
