Obituary of Jack Hofmann

Jack W. Hofmann, age 78 years old, The Villages, Florida and formerly a resident of Oldwick, New Jersey, passed away on Wednesday, May 21, 2014.

He was married to Martha Hofmann on October 24, 2009.

He is survived by his four lovely children; Cynthia Coale, of Riegelsville, PA.; Robert Hofmann, of Kansas City, KS; Ronald Hofmann, of Greer, SC and Michelle "Chelmo" Hofmann, of Oldwick, NJ and 8 grandchildren. He was also very much loved by Martha's son Felipe. He is also survived by his sister Carol Ann Griest of Redondo Beach, CA.

Jack was born in 1935 in Washington, DC and was a 17 year member of the Washington Redskin marching band. Jack retired from AT&T after 43 years of service. He was a lifetime member of The Pioneers Of America. Jack was an active resident of The Villages community and his church; Fairway Christian Church. He was an avid fisherman, and Villager softball player.

His joys in life were Martha, traveling all over the world, watching the Washington Redskins play in DC, fishing in Canada and spending time with his children and grandchildren. He was very much loved by all who had the pleasure of being a part of his life.

“ Words can't express what Jack's friendship meant to me. I will miss him tremendously and thank him for the most precious gift he left all of us: his lovely and gracious wife, Martha, who has become a dear and cherished friend. I will always be here to you querida amiga. Adios me querido amigo, Jack.
