“ To my beautiful mother, you will never know how much I truly love you. I will miss you everyday until the end of time. You were a beautiful Angel here on earth and now God has taken you to be his Angel in Heaven. I am so horribly heartbroken that you have gone, but I know you are no longer suffering and finally at peace. Until we meet again, forever your little girl. Jenn

“ Jenn & the McKay family, Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. I hope that all of the wonderful memories you share will bring you comfort and get you through this difficult time. Although I never met Mrs. McKay, I feel like I did because of all the wonderful stories Jenn has shared with me. You all now have a special angel looking out for each of you.

“ I was so happy that you and uncle cal came to my moms 80th surprise party. You made it so special by chasing us all around and taking pictures. You were such a great aunt and always made everyone laugh. I lost you and my best friend all in the same week and I know you are up in heaven taking care of each other. I love you so much. Rest in peace until we meet again. You are an angel watching over us.

“ My deepest condolences to my Grandpa, my Dad (Scott), Aunt Jackie Sue, Uncle Chris, Aunt Jenn, and my entire McKay family. Grandma, you truly were one of the most influential people in my life. Everytime we talked, you always had some sort of encouragment and kind words to tell me. It was always a pleasure when I was around you or just hearing your voice. Your smile could light up a whole room! I will miss you forever and words can not express how much I love you! I promise that my son will know all about you once he is born. Continue to watch over all of us Grandma. Rest in peace and I love you so much!

“ Where do I begin, Aunt Jackie??? You were like a second mom to me. Growing up next door to you was a gift. You were there for me more than once or twice or a million times. You helped me with my high school salutatorian speech, you helped me to make a really important decision in my life (remember our walk?), and you did a lovely reading at my wedding. Thank you for being such a beautiful, loving, fun, and giving person. Thank you also for being such a good friend to my mother. I will miss you terribly, Aunt Jackie. I love you. My heart goes out to Uncle Cal, Chris, Jackie Sue, Scott, and Jenny.

“ McKay Family I shall never forget Jackie. We spent many times together at Woolco in Bridgehamton, NY. Her beautiful smile and sense of humor will forever live on within me. I live in Orlando and will try hard to be at the service. Remember that Jackie is resting in the arms of our Lord. I will continue to lift the family up in prayer.

“ I was deeply saddened at the news of your passing. To date you are one of the most favorite of people I have met on this earth. Apon hearing your name the first word I think of is laughter. The second is Alice, the name my father called you. I wish we could still laugh like we always did at your home in Southampton. You were always so much fun. My Prayers are with you and your entire family. Love forever, George

“ To the entire family, I send my love, prayers and condolences to you all. I will always remember Jackie as my 2nd mom on Spruce Street. If my mom didn't catch us doing something stupid and getting yelled at , Jackie was there instead. Jackie and my mom Ellen are up in heaven coffee clutching and talking about old times on Spruce Street. She was one great lady. May you RIP Jackie

“ To The Family & Jennifer my Friend... My prayers for each of you is that you may remember the promises of God is that he is not a god of the dead by of the living... Trust in the the Lord and his word.... "So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:" Remember; God has a prepared place for prepared people where there is no more death, sickness, or sorrow... Heaven is God's children's new address ....a place where they may find eternal rest! We share in you grief and encourage you to remember God so loved the world he gave us his son and thats where you will find those you love. Randy

“ Our sincere condolences to the entire McKay family at this most difficult time. Jackie was a wonderful, kind and caring woman who loved and lived life to the utmost. She always put a smile on my face when ever I saw her. She loved and cared for her family very much and always wished you all the very best. She will be missed by all. Even though she is gone physically, spiritually she will always be with you. In our prayers and thoughts. Love to you all, Michelle Phillips and family.

“ Well Mother we have reached that point, the point we knew would come for both of us I almost beat you to it but with all your prayers along with others Im here. Lets talk about one thing people didnt know about you, and that is you have one heckuva left upper cut. TKO as soon as I opened the door, and you said while Im gasping for air on the foyer your lucky your dad didnt do it SMILE. Yes the nite I took the truck but I brought it back SMILE. Mom while I read other posts three words are used over and over for you (this hurts) laughter, encouragement and smile all true but your personality was authentic because you could adapt to anyone by putting yourself in there shoes and you taught me that SMILE. Honestly my Mother we were all caught off guard and that hurts the most, even though I called sometimes 7 or 8 times a day to get your opinion on something, I feel as though I didnt get to say my proper, respectful and Loving good bye but Mom you know how much I loved and adored you, THANKS Mother for everything the whole rap sheet you stuck up for me on, your Love For Me was Felt Deeper than anyone will know in me. Mom you will be with every breath I take, since you where up in times GURL I Love You, that seat next to you put for Scott I dont care who tries to take it tell them NO. Mom we had a Blast. YOU ARE MY LADY
