“ My deepest and heartfelt condolences to Mary Jo and the family in the passing of Jim. He was one of the good guys and he and Mary Jo were soooooo well suited. My favorite story was when Mary Jo got their little dog Poo. She loved and doted on Poo, Jim with his stern demeanor was determined not to like Poo. Mary Jo caught him playing with Poo and giving Poo treats when he didn't think anyone was watching. He came to adore Poo. The man had heart. You had 49 years together, a great love, you'll be together some day, but until then, cherish your memories.
