

James Collins

December 12, 2009

Obituary of James Collins

James Willard Ward Collins, 85, of Leesburg, Florida passed away Saturday December 12, 2009 in Alabama. Mr. Collins worked as a mechanic until his retirement. He was a veteran of the US Navy, member of the VFW and DAV, and former member of the Lake County War Veterans Honor Guard. Mr. Collins was a baptist and member of the Lighthouse Baptist Church.

He is survived by a daughter Cheryl Ann Collins; son James W. Collins, Jr.; brother Richard F. Collins; step-daughter Claudia Campbell as well as grandchildren, nieces, nephews and other extended family.

Services

Graveside services for Mr. Collins will be held Wednesday December 16, 2009 at Florida National Cemetery in Bushnell, Florida with Military Honors provided by the Lake County War Veterans Honor Guard.

Interment

Florida National Cemetery, Bushnell, Florida.