

James Coster

June 29, 2011

Obituary of James Coster

James T. Coster, 86 of Wildwood FL, formerly of Baltimore, passed away Wednesday, June 29, 2011 at Lane Purcell Hospice House. He is predeceased by his wife, Ruth and daughter, Joan Billingsley. He is survived by daughter, Patricia Apicella (Anthony); grandchildren, Amy Letendre and Anthony Apicella, Jr. (Anne); son-in-law, Lee Billingsley and sister, Rose Burford.

Corporal Coster was a WW II Veteran served in the 3rd Battalion, 348th Combat Infantry Division. His service included action in the European, African & Middle East Theatres where he was awarded the Bronze Star, Distinguished Unit Badge & Good Conduct Medal. He was laid to rest next to his wife of 66 years in South Florida VA National Cemetery, Lake Worth FL.

Tribute Wall

“ Pat, The obituary is a fitting tribute to your father's distinguished record in World War II. My love and prayers are with you. Love, Lee

Lee - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM