

Dr James Hughes Currier

November 10, 1938 - February 4, 2023

Dr. James Hughes Currier, 84, died peacefully with family members around him at home in The Villages, Florida on February 4, 2023, after courageously battling a long illness. He was born November 10, 1938 in Sharon, Pennsylvania to Stanley N. Currier and Esther Hughes Currier.

Jim graduated from Sharon High School, where his father was Principal. He attended Grove City College (PA) for two years in an accelerated program and graduated from the University of Pittsburgh (Pitt) after a third year with a B.S. in Biology. Continuing studies at Pitt, he graduated from Pitt Dental School in 1963 with a D.D.S. degree. From 1963-1965, Jim served as a U.S. Air Force Captain at the Niagara Falls (New York) Air Force Missile Site. He then attained an M.S. degree in Orthodontics at Temple University (Philadelphia), 1965-1967, and was certified by the American Board of Orthodontics. Over the course of more than thirty years, Jim practiced orthodontics in his hometown Sharon/Shenango Valley area and Cortland, Ohio.

Active in professional and civic associations throughout his life, Jim was a member of the American Dental Association, American Association of Orthodontists, U.S. Chamber of Commerce, Freemasons, American Legion, and National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. He was a member of First United Methodist Church in Sharon, and New Covenant United Methodist Church, The Villages.

A proud alumnus of Pitt, Jim was an avid fan of Panthers football and basketball games.

He also enjoyed golfing, skiing, painting, and martial arts.

Jim is survived by wife Sue Ann Currier; his sons Dr. James D. "Kip" Currier and Todd Alan Currier (Tammy), three grandchildren Troy, Tori, and Trista Currier; step-daughter Cory Ann Zolnier (Joel), step-grandchildren Andrew and Anthony Zolnier; step-son James L. Becker (Anabel), step-granddaughter Lily Becker; former wife Marilyn W. Currier; nephews Gary C. Johnson and Dr. James C. Johnson; pre-deceased by parents and sister Janice K. Johnson.

Visitation will be on Saturday, February 18, 2023 beginning at 9 AM, immediately followed by an 11 AM service at McGonigle Funeral Home, 1090 E. State St., Sharon, PA. A private burial service with military honors for family will be held at Hillcrest Cemetery, Hermitage, PA. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to hospice care services.

Previous Events

Visitation

FEB 18. 9:00 AM (ET)

McGonigle Funeral Home
1090 E. State St.
Sharon, PA 16146

Service

FEB 18. 11:00 AM (ET)

McGonigle Funeral Home
1090 E. State St.
Sharon, PA 16146

Tribute Wall

“ *Most amazing man full of knowledge & passion for Orthodontics!
Thank you doc for your kindness & friendship! Prayers &
condolences to all!*
Miriam Silva

Miriam Silva - February 10, 2023 at 03:02 PM

“ Todd Currier And Family lit a candle in memory of Dr James Hughes Currier

Todd currier and family - February 09, 2023 at 12:12 PM

Such a nice man. I worked fir him at Brite now dental. He will be missed. My condolences to your family.

Jeanne morgan - February 10, 2023 at 02:08 PM