“ We loved you very much Jimmy. Full of life and always willing to help people no matter the consequences. Our fondest memories of you were when you were in San Diego, and we got to see you and spend time with you and your dog Coty. And even after you left for Fla, you were always kind and loving on the phone. But now you no longer have to suffer and be in pain. Rest in peace little brother, we love you. Until we meet again =)
