A resident of The Villages for the last eleven years, when he wasn't playing Division 2 or 3 softball or fishing with The Villages Deep Sea Fishing Club, he worked on real estate investment properties projects with his friend, Merry Lynn Brondos.

“ When you left Michelle after 25 years, she was devastated. It was a terrible way to do it. As my brother-in-law, I thought I knew you. I was so wrong. When your daughter came home after visiting you and you told her you finally found what you were missing— a family, I figured you had a mental breakdown. So at least now, you’re at peace. Believe me, I won’t forget you.

“ It is with a heavy heart we remember Jim Glover. We only met him as our "first call for help" when renting property in the Villages last Jan - March. So we haven't known him long or well, but were so looking forward to seeing him again next winter. It's not often you meet a fella who is so helpful, caring and full of life. To those of you who knew him well, count yourselves as lucky ~ he seemed to be one heck of a great guy. We're certainly glad we crossed paths with Jim.

“ Remembering you always. You'll be fishing with all the angels and probably be still catching the biggest ones.

“ I met Jim about two and a half years ago when I moved to The Villages and started playing softball again after twenty-five years. Fortunately I was assigned to a team with Jim as a teammate. After all the years of not playing, my skills were very suspect to say the least. Jim kept encouraging me and taking me aside to show me ways that I could improve. By the seasons end I began playing much better and Jim's kindness didn't stop with that season. Every time he saw me he would stop to ask how I was doing and offer different pieces of advice to improve my game. Sometimes when I was batting I'd see him behind the backstop watching me hit.

On the first day of last season Jim pitched for our team as a substitute. Right before the game he pulled me aside and told me what he observed about my hitting and told me how to correct it. I led off the game and hit the first pitch over the left fielder's head for a home run. When I came back to the dugout Jim greeted me by saying "You see what I'm telling you!". I'll never be described as a home run hitter, but for one moment in time I led the league in home runs thanks to Jim.

I will always be grateful for Jim's kindness towards me and truly appreciated his friendship.
