His Journey's Just Begun by Ellen Brenneman
Don't think of him as gone away his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched..... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.

“ *We would look up at the stars and wonder of everything we know
We would talk to each other and time stood so slow
The days are gone now but I can still hear you say That you love me and to always remember you this way
Its harder than I thought and I miss all of our time Its like you were ripped from me and forever that will be a crime
I love you now like I loved you over again
And forever you will be my love, my babe, my forever friend*
