“ Just learned of the loss of my uncle. I had lots of memories and good times with uncle Wes. We spent lots of time together when he lived in Pasadena and had lots of fun he could always make me laugh until I cried. When he and my mother were together they had more fun than a barrel of monkeys. Love to you Uncle Wes, you will always be in my thoughts.

“ Our sincere sympathy. Wes was a wonderful man who, with his wife, Ida, helped us take care of my parents when they were ill. We are forever grateful to have known such a kind person. God rest his soul.
