“ My prayers are with all of you in this time of sorrow. I know the pain that is being felt right now as I lost Ruyan just a little over 1 year ago. I know that they are together now and at peace. May God grant you peace and solace at this time. I didn't know him well but liked him very much. Love you Dot and Sarah. Be strong and know that I'll be there in spirit. God bless you all!

“ no greater fishing companion is there u toughed out some of the most greuling weather and hottest days all for the thrill of catching some fish. feet hurting skin burned arms tired hands bleeding from fins and hooks poking and yet we stayed out there and the bounty was great. some days we came home empty handed but we kept at it. I asked to marry your daughter while filling our buckets with catfish and its been our past time since. i'll cry when i fish now and look to my left i know ur not there in person but ur there in spirit i hope in heaven they have a stoked pond where you can catch dinner every day and i know u got a spot saved for me and can tell me all the good spots. so until then love you miss you and when the fish aren't biting throw some luck my way. forever in our hearts and minds the greatest fishing friend and father in law i knew rest in peace and get up early for the bite. your fishing buddy and son in law.
