“ I just saw this notice and wanted to send condolences to Michael and Patti. I never met your dad but what an exciting life he enjoyed!! WWII veteran like my dad who was in the Seabees They were brave men who served our country. Wow your dad was a busy father raising six sons I know he is missed very much. We all can hope that like your dad we can take on our current challenges and live a fulfilling life!! Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the family!!
