“ This was such a shock to me when I got the sad news. I feel your pain for I just laid to rest my Fred last month. Jim was so thought full that he made a point of sending me flowers and comforting me when he came to the VA. He was a wonderful and caring guy. We will all miss him and we will all pray for you and the family.

“ Dear Louise and Family, I am thinking of you all at this most difficult time~ As Jim's exit from the physical world has created a void we cannot fill, he has moved over to a place where we will one day see him again. In the meantime, we share his memory and he forever lives on in each of us. I feel so fortunate to have met him and fondly remember how he drove us through the woods on his property in his big truck just weeks ago. He enriched my life as he did so many, and I am thankful for the time I had with him. Love and blessings and comfort to friends and family, Jimmy will not be forgotten. Love, Diana

“ Stephen, Keith, Ryan, Sunnie and Louise - I offer my solemn condolences. Jimmy was my teacher and friend. I will miss him more than words can convey. He taught me to be grateful for all that I have...to be teachable...and to thank God. I am truly blessed to have had Jimmy as a friend and confidant... Again, my sincere condolences. Lance E. “ My Friend, JR I was fortunate enough to have become a close friend of Jimmy's over the last five years. We were both sober men who had been given a second chance at Life. Jimmy scared many people by his rough and gruff demeanor, but beneath that cover was a cream puff of a man- a kind and gentle heart. I suppose we became close because we were so different. He was from Harlem, New York and I was from Fairfield County. He had rubbed elbows with the very rich and played squash at the New York Athletic Club. He also knew the streets...something I had never experienced except when representing criminal defendants. But, our lives had brought us to the same venue- searching for a spiritual solution to Life's problems and practicing gratitude. Jimmy was a confidant, teacher and role model. He loved his Louise, children, grandchildren, friends and BoBo. We shared our fears, dreams and even a few heated discussions- now and then. I will truly miss all that. Jimmy was proud of what he had in Life but duly acknowledged that it was all a blessed gift from God. I learned perseverance, patience and love from JR. We laughed about alot together even the sometimes "bad deal" that we felt we received some days. He was always hopeful, generous and loyal. He was sarcastic when required, reminding me that "You are your father's piñata!" or "Just stay teachable" or "They're just invitin' you to dance." I trusted Jimmy and I was blessed that he trusted me. That is a true gift. The photos he took and gave to us as gifts, the "knock-off" sunglasses, the crystal pineapple, the good times at the beach and driving in the Benz. The frustration with people who complain about their lives and do nothing about it. More gifts than I could ask for. True friendship. Laughter in times of fear, sadness and even despair. Jimmy boy, you are sorely missed by Carl. Thanks for everything you gave me...and us. Amen Carl S. Back 2-09-2010

“ Dear Luise, I spoke to you and your dear Jim on phone while Carl and Diana visited. Then I got the sad news of your loss. No words can take away the pain you feel right now, dear Luise; time is the only healer. We do not know why sad things happen but we know that nothing beautiful in this world is ever really lost... because all precious things live in memory...forever. May God's blessings be with you all in this time of sorrow. And may be the words a Pastor Ritter wrote will help a little bit: "I will live until I die, and when I die I will live." May your memories bring you comfort. My deepest condolences are with you as you grieve.
