

James A Relyea

November 29, 2014

Obituary of James Relyea

James A. Relyea, 74, of The Villages passed away Saturday November, 29. James is survived by his wife Susan, his two sons James and Richard, granddaughter Allison, step sons Bill and Ricky and step grandchildren Jackie and Gregory.

Before moving to the Villages 15 years ago, Jim lived on eastern Long Island and worked as an iron worker as a member of the Local 46 lathers union. Having never played the game before retiring, Jim became a golf enthusiast and enjoyed many hours of fun with his friends at The Lakes golf club. Jim was also history buff, an avid reader and a big fan of food and cruising. Jim never met a stranger as he loved talking to anyone and everyone. He will be missed by many.

Online condolences may be left at www.beyersfuneralhome.com

Arrangements entrusted to Beyers Funeral Home and Crematory, Lady Lake, FL

Tribute Wall

“ Jim was a special man that will truly be missed. I always enjoyed his visits in our office. You both made many special memories on lots of our group cruises. I know you're like family to many of us. Please keep in touch. I'm so sorry your loss. Sincerely, Julie Burns Ocala Travel

Julie Burns - December 04, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Sue tony and i were sorry to hear about jim..He will be remembered in our prayers

Rosemary and Tony - December 03, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Miss you already.

Eileen - December 03, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ James A Relyea

December 02, 2014 at 12:00 AM