

James Riell

November 18, 1933 - December 9, 2012

Obituary of James Riell

James E. Riell, 79, resident of The Villages, FL, passed away, December 9, 2012, at the Villages Regional Hospital. He was born in Bennington, VT, November 18, 1933, the Son of Leonard and Agnes Riell. Jim attended Roeliff Jansen High School and continued on to receive a Business degree from Albany Business College. Jim was married to Dolores on November 21, 1956. He spent his working career in Albany, NY at NL Industries as a production controller. Jim loved sports, especially football. He was a true NY Giants fan. He loved golf, swimming, baseball and basketball.

He is survived by one brother, Gerald; four children, Stuart, Kellie, Mark and Russell and six grandchildren, Adam, Zachary, Hannah, Zoe, Lea and Taylor.

In memorial donations may be given to the American Heart Association (<http://donate.americanheart.org>).

Memorial Donations

In memorial donations may be given to the American Heart Association (<https://donate.americanheart.org>).